The Story of Christmas Procession

- (And donations for Christmas still needed)

Nativity Procession

A Nativity Procession is being staged this Saturday 8th December, from 11.00 am.

The procession consisting of Mary, Joseph, shepherds and 'Magi' riding camels will leave the Torrens Parade Ground at 11.00am, proceed south along King William Street onto North Terrace and will then congregate under the canopy at Rundle Mall/Gawler Place where the story of Christmas will be told. The procession will also include Sunday School Children, Enfield Brass Band, sheep, camels and a donkey,

Maughan Church Choir (mainly from Chinese congregation) will be singing Christmas Carols in the mall just prior to the story of Christmas being told, from about 11.15 am and will sing at different stages during the telling of the Christmas Story.

Participants in the event will include Councillors from the Adelaide City Council (Joseph Cullen as a magi and David Plumridge with Michael Henningsen as shepherds) and representatives of various community groups.

How to Help

"For members of the public wanting to share the Christmas Spirit, we are still seeking assistance from the SA public with Christmas Hampers and gifts for children," said Rev Peter McDonald, Minister of UnitingCare Wesley. "People can help us with a cash donation to the "Give Kids a Chance to Shine" Christmas Appeal . Donations can be made through any Commonwealth Bank branch or online at www.commbank.com.au. Also donations of gifts for children can be left under the Christmas tree at any Target store
